

Foreign Service Lecture

What You Will Find in the Foreign Service

Jessica Ward

Office management specialist, American Embassy Dhaka, Bangladesh

Tuesday, 1 July

2:00 P.M.

B-104 JFSB

Jessica Ward is visiting campus as part of the U.S. Department of State's Hometown Diplomat program. Ward is nearing the end of her first tour in Dhaka, Bangladesh, and looking forward to her next assignment in Vienna, Austria. She worked overseas both as an English teacher (in Taiwan) and as a nanny (in Paris) before acknowledging that her dream job would include the opportunity to live around the world. Her aunt's suggestion that she "check out the foreign service" was all it took to get her hooked on the idea as a career. Ward hails from the great state of Utah and received a BA in humanities from Brigham Young University.

This lecture will be archived online and is sponsored by BYU's Foreign Service Student Organization, College of Humanities Advisement Center, and the David M. Kennedy Center for International Studies.

<http://kennedy.byu.edu>

kcpublications@byu.edu

BRIGHAM YOUNG UNIVERSITY
DAVID M. KENNEDY CENTER
FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDIES