

JORDAN

INTENSIVE ARABIC

STUDY ABROAD FALL 2021

Amman is a rapidly changing city that embodies many of the promises and challenges of the entire region. As you focus on improving your Arabic each day, you will connect with local Jordanians, in addition to refugees from Syria, Iraq, and Palestine who make up the population. You will be exposed to a quasi-democratic country with some of the trappings of democracy but not always its substance; a country currently in a state of enormous flux and facing critical issues of succession, inclusion and legitimacy. You will interact with Christian and Muslim Arabs of various types, engaging in a political and religious discourse that is fascinating and unique. You will be in one of the centers of a cultural tradition that balances contemporary innovations and a rich heritage. Most importantly, you will have many opportunities to get to know kind and resilient people, come to understand their concerns, views, and ways of living, and learn a great deal about yourself.

PREPARATION

Students must be adults 18 years-of-age or older.

Accepted students are required to participate in an international, cross-cultural preparation course (IAS 201R, 1 credit hour). This evening course will be held during the second block of winter semester 2020 on Tuesdays, 4:00–6:00 p.m.

Accompanying spouses will be registered for a .5 credit hour class to be part of the Israel portion. Spouses will need to apply online and take the preparation course. Costs for an accompanying spouse for the Jordan portion will be approximately $4,700-5,000.

FUNDING SOURCES

Regular BYU tuition scholarships, Pell Grants, and Federal Insured Student Loans may be applied to Study Abroad programs. Students who submit the financial aid section of the ISP application, and who have a current FAFSA form on file at the Financial Aid Office (A-41 ASB), will be considered for a Study Abroad scholarship. Academic departments and colleges may assist with scholarships and grants. Private grants and scholarships outside of BYU may also assist (see kennedy.byu.edu/isp/financial-aid/)

APPLICATION PROCESS

Complete the online application at kennedy.byu.edu/apply. A non-refundable $35 application fee is required. Applicants will be interviewed once the application is complete and will be notified via e-mail of their acceptance into the program. Please refer to the 2021 Payment Information document for payment schedule (see kennedy.byu.edu/isp-forms/ISPpayments2021.pdf)

Deadline: 15 February 2021
