

THE FOREIGN SERVICE A BYU GRAD'S MID-CAREER PERSPECTIVE

FRI | 15 JUL 16
2 PM
238 HRCB

FSO James D. Fellows has served in Europe and the Middle East during his seventeen years with the U.S. Department of State. Fellows has had overseas assignments in Switzerland, Jordan, Lithuania, Germany, and most recently Jerusalem. He is on leave before beginning a new assignment in a liaison position in Washington, D.C. A native of Dryden, NY, he received a BA in international studies from Brigham Young University and an MA from George Washington University.

*Foreign Service
Student Organization*

KENNEDY CENTER