

Getting to an International Affairs Career

TUE | 20 SEP 16
1–3 PM
238 HRCB

Learn about the Foreign Service exam and international affairs careers.

Kyler O. Kronmiller is a political officer in the U.S. Foreign Service and currently working on regional security issues at the U.S. Embassy in Rabat, Morocco. Kronmiller has worked in Middle East and North Africa issues with the Department of State in Washington, D.C., and at the U.S. Consulate General in Jerusalem. He received a BA in international studies from BYU and an MA in international affairs at the Johns Hopkins School of Advanced International Studies. Kronmiller and his wife are the parents of four children.

*Foreign Service
Student Organization*

KENNEDY CENTER