Ask Us Anything on what family life is really like working for the State Department and living around the world.

Daniel and Kate Phelps have been with the Foreign Service since 2006—he as an officer and she as a “trailing spouse.” They have enjoyed postings in Muscat, Surabaya, Baghdad, Vienna, and Shenyang. Kate has developed a flexible, unique career in international development. A native of Winnipeg, Canada, she received a BA in Middle East Studies/Arabic from BYU in 2006. An Air Force brat, Daniel received a BA in international relations from BYU in 2005.
