

You are invited to a reception celebrating

BYU's Legacy Abroad

Hosted by RENATA FORSTE, Kennedy Center director and BYU associate international vice president, and AMBASSADOR ROBERT KING, U.S. special envoy for North Korea (2009–2017)

Wednesday, 19 September 2018, 6:30–8:00 p.m.
Thomas S. Monson Center, 411 E. South Temple, SLC

See how 50 years of study abroad has truly made the world our campus and led to BYU's top 25 ranking by the Institute for International Education.

- RECONNECT with former faculty directors, students, and global leaders in the Salt Lake area.
- CELEBRATE the London Centre's first 40 years.
- LEARN about our partnership with the University of Utah on national grants for Latin America and Asia.
- VIEW photos and flashbacks—and find out what's next for BYU abroad.

RSVP to 801-422-3377 or at byuabroadSLC2018.eventbrite.com by 14 September.
