STUDY ABROAD SPRING 2019

A thrilling way to enrich your university experience will be to plunge into the stimulating atmosphere and experiences offered by Study Abroad in Paris and Western France. This program focuses on the language, civilization, and culture of France. While in Paris, students will enhance their language skills and cultural knowledge through daily interaction with French host families. Various trips and excursions will give participants the opportunity to discover France outside Paris. While living and studying in Paris, the City of Light, students will of course visit le Louvre, le Musée d'Orsay, la Cathédrale de Notre Dame—and many other important sites such as Versailles, Fontainebleau, and Chartres. They will also travel to several wonderful cities in western France and tour historic castles in the Loire Valley!

DATES

2 May–16 June 2019

HOUSING

Students will live with a French host family. They will usually share a host family with another BYU student. Host family stays include breakfasts and three dinners a week.

COURSES

Students must take at least six credit hours from among the following courses. (French 345 or 445 is required of all participants.) French 362 and French 445 can count toward French studies BA and French teaching BA requirements.

FREN 202 Intermediate French, Part 2 (3 credit hours—fulfills GE Foreign Language requirement.)

FREN 362 French Civilization from 1715 to the Present (3 credit hours—fulfills GE Arts and Letters elective.)

ESTIMATED COST

Approximately $6,000

Includes LDS, undergraduate full tuition (increased cost for graduate and non-LDS students); housing; group transportation on field trips; transportation in Paris; and international health insurance. It also includes: breakfasts and some evening meals with host family, breakfasts and group dinners on the excursion, and food allowances while in Paris.

Not included: airfare, lunches, some evening meals in Paris, personal expenses, passport.

PREPARATION

Students are required to complete FREN 201 prior to departure.

Accepted students are required to participate in our study abroad preparation course (IAS 201, Section 36, 1 credit hour). This course will be held Wednesday from 4:00 to 5:40 pm during the second block of winter semester.

Accompanying spouses need to be credit-bearing participants on the program. Spouses will also need to apply online and take the preparation course.

FUNDING SOURCES

Regular BYU tuition scholarships, Pell Grants, and Federal Insured Student Loans may be applied to study abroad programs. Students who submit the financial aid section of the ISP application, and who have a current FAFSA form on file at the Financial Aid Office (A-41 ASB), will be considered for a study abroad scholarship and may be considered for other scholarships. They must indicate on their original online application that they want to be considered for financial aid.

The college of Humanities and the Department of French & Italian have scholarships available for their majors, based on financial need. Private grants and scholarships outside of BYU may also assist (see kennedy.byu.edu/scholarships).

APPLICATION PROCESS

Complete the $35 (non-refundable) online application at kennedy.byu.edu/apply.

Applicants will be interviewed once the application is complete.

Students will be notified via e-mail of their acceptance into the program.

The first payment is due upon acceptance. Please refer to the 2019 Payment Information document (see kennedy.byu.edu/isp-forms/ISPpayments2019.pdf).

Application Deadline: 25 January, 2019

FACULTY

Yvon Le Bras (yvon\_lebras@byu.edu) is a professor of French in the Department of French & Italian. He teaches French language, culture, literature and civilization courses as well as business French in the Marriott School of Management.

Robert Erickson (robert\_erickson@byu.edu) is Associate Director for Curriculum and Instruction in the Center for Language Studies. He is also an assistant professor of French. He teaches French language, culture, pedagogy, and civilization courses.

SCHEDULE AND TIME COMMITMENT

Students are free to travel on their own at the end of the program; however, due to the Schengen Treaty, students may only stay in France and Continental Europe for ninety days. This spring study abroad program lasts approximately 46 days.
