

PARIS

GENERAL EDUCATION STUDY ABROAD SUMMER 2021

Fulfill GE requirements in Paris, the City of Light! From the medieval Sorbonne, to the court of Louis XIV, Romantic poets, Impressionist painters, and the Ballets Russes, Paris has long been an international cultural center. Study culture, form, and fine arts in the museums, monuments, and theaters of Paris. Experience French art, literature, dance at their origins. No French language experience is required. This program is designed for students with a love of literature, history, and the arts who would like an in-depth experience with Paris, its museums, and monuments, but who may not have studied French or have the time, funds, or interest to commit to a longer program during the academic year.

DATES

1 July- 12 August (six weeks)

HOUSING

Students will live in a dorm environment with other BYU students. While students from other universities will also be present, students will have their own private room and bathroom. Smoking is prohibited in the dorm, and students will also have access to communal kitchens, cafeteria, laundry facilities, a library, and free wireless internet.

PREPARATION

Students must be 18 years of age or older. Accepted students are required to participate in an international, cultural preparation course (IAS 201, 1 credit hour). This second-block evening course will be held during winter semester. Accompanying spouses need to be credit-bearing participants on the program. Spouses will also need to apply online and take the preparation course.

FUNDING SOURCES

Regular BYU tuition scholarships, Pell Grants, and Federal Insured Student Loans may be applied to study abroad programs. Students who submit the financial aid section of the ISP application and who have a current FAFSA form on file at the Financial Aid Office (A-41 ASB) will be considered for a study abroad scholarship. Academic departments and colleges may assist with scholarships and grants. Private grants and scholarships outside of BYU may also assist (see kennedy.byu.edu/student/scholarships).

APPLICATION PROCESS

Complete the online application at kennedy.byu.edu/apply The application requires a $35 fee. Students will be notified via e-mail of their acceptance into the program. Applicants will be interviewed once the application is complete. Deadline: 15 February 2021

FACULTY

Christopher Flood is an assistant professor of French. His love of France began with a mission to Bordeaux and has continued to grow over the years with each new research trip and student tour (led with his wife, a public school French teacher). His research focuses on the literature and culture of the Middle Ages and Renaissance... and pastries.

Amy Jex is an assistant professor in the Department of Dance, specializing in World Dance. This program marries her love of the humanities, history, dance, traveling, and eating crepes! She and her husband, Kyley, and two of their sons will be joining the program.

SCHEDULE AND TIME COMMITMENT

Due to the Schengen Treaty, students may only stay in France and the European Union for a total of 90 days.
