John Dinkelman is chief of staff in the Bureau of Administration at the U.S. Department of State. Dinkelman's overseas assignments with the Foreign Service have included: Yugoslavia, the UK, the Marshall Islands, the Netherlands, Turkey, Mexico, and most recently the Bahamas as chargé d'affaires. During his five years at the Foreign Service Institute, he trained over 2,700 officers—more than 40 percent of the American diplomatic corps—for which he received the 2006 Arnold L. Raphel Memorial Award. His wife Sarah will be with him for the Wednesday lecture.
