INTERNSHIPS 2022

Known as the City of Lights, Paris is one of the world's leading business and cultural centers. Its influence in politics, education, entertainment, media, fashion, science, and the arts makes it one of the world's major global cities. An internship in this city will enhance any resume. Internship placement will be customized to individual student goals and chosen fields. Placement coordinators work with a large variety of companies and placement is determined by many factors, including company needs as well as education, experience, and background. A wide variety of internship fields are available: advertising, agriculture, art, business, communications, computer science/IT, culinary arts, design, drama/theater, fashion, finance/banking, graphic design, healthcare, hotel/hospitality/tourism, international studies, journalism, law, marketing, and psychology.

COST

Spring (8 weeks) or summer: $2,500–2,700; Fall, winter, or spring (12 weeks):$3,900–4,100

Students must also pay the $35 application fee. Payments to BYU includes BYU undergraduate tuition (cost is higher for graduate and non-Latter-day Saint tuition), international health insurance coverage (required), and internship placement.

Does not include international airfare, housing, meals, transportation, personal expenses, or passport fee.

TRAVEL

Students are responsible for purchasing their own airfare to and from the program sites. Airfare reservations must be made through BYU Travel. Students should contact a BYU Travel agent at 280 HRCB (801-422-6293) or travel@byu.edu.

PREPARATION

Students must have completed FREN 321 (advanced grammar) prior to leaving for the internship.

Accepted students are required to participate in an international preparation course (IAS 369R 1 credit hour). Accompanying spouses need to be credit-bearing participants on the program. Spouses will also need to apply online and take the preparation course.

All participants are required to show proof of complete COVID-19 vaccination (including booster) at least two weeks prior to departure.

FUNDING SOURCES

Regular BYU tuition scholarships, Pell Grants, and Federal Insured Student Loans may be applied to study abroad programs. Private grants and scholarships outside of BYU may also assist (see kennedy.byu.edu/scholarships).

Students who submit the financial aid section of the ISP application and who have a current FAFSA form on file at the Financial Aid Office (A-41 ASB) will be considered for a study abroad scholarship.

Academic departments and colleges may assist with scholarships and grants. Scholarships are available for students majoring or minoring in French as well as other disciplines in the College of Humanities. Please check with Yvon Le Bras for details.

Research grants are also available to ORCA students who are sponsored by a professor.

APPLICATION PROCESS

Students must be 18 years of age or older. Complete the $35 (non-refundable) online application at kennedy.byu.edu/apply. Students will be notified via e-mail of their acceptance into the program. Applicants will be interviewed once the application is complete. The first payment is due upon acceptance. Please refer to the 2022 Payment Information document (see kennedy.byu.edu/isp-forms/ISPpayments2022.pdf).
