

CAN A STUDENT PROTECT OUR NATION?

When you're a part of the CIA, you can.

Yes...now can you earn a CIA scholarship to do it?

High school seniors and college underclassman: Go to cia.gov/careers/student-opportunities during 15 February - 31 July to apply to CIA's Undergraduate Scholarship Program. You can earn a spot if you have good grades, particularly in STEM; are a leader in and out of class; and meet the work and eligibility criteria. CIA draws on the diversity of the United States to fulfill its mission; bring your unique perspective to work with us!

Program highlights include:

- Up to $18,000 per year for tuition, fees and books PLUS a year-round salary
- Resources to sharpen your foreign language skills or build new ones
- A job at CIA after graduation if you perform well and pass security processing

Internships are in the summer in the Washington DC area. CIA will pay for roundtrip transportation between your school and the area, and can help you find housing.
