

AMA with Adam Bently

WED | 3 APR 2019

3 PM

238 HRCB

Ask Me Anything on diplomacy careers, connections with philosophy and law, and U.S./China/Korean issues.

Adam Bently joined the Foreign Service in 2016 and is completing his first tour as consular officer and fraud prevention manager in Beijing, China. Bently's next assignment is in Seoul, South Korea. He served a mission in Daejeon, South Korea, and speaks Mandarin and Korean. He received a BA in philosophy from BYU and a JD from UCLA School of Law. Bently practiced law in Los Angeles at Latham & Watkins LLP and Arent Fox LLP until joining the Foreign Service.

*Foreign Service
Student Organization*

KENNEDY CENTER