AMA with Justin Bytheway

WED | 12 JUN 2019
2 PM
257 HRCB

Ask Me Anything on why diplomacy matters, experiences abroad, and career paths in the U.S. Department of State.

Justin Bytheway is a management officer at the U.S. Consulate General in Perth and holds the diplomatic title of consul. Bytheway is head of the consulate general’s administrative section. He has previously served in Havana, Cuba; Washington, D.C.; New Delhi, India; and Nogales, Mexico. He hails from the small town of Glenwood in southern Utah, close to the famous National Parks of the West. Bytheway received a BA in American studies from BYU where he met his wife, Sarah, and they are the parents of five children: Elliott (10), Eleanor (8), Frances (6), Henry (4), and Mabel (2).