FRONTEIRA DA GRANDEZA

BRAZIL'S NATIONAL IDENTITY FROM PAST TO FUTURE

TUE | 6 AUG 2019
5:30–7:30 PM

ROBINSON AUDITORIUM
SCHOOL OF GLOBAL POLICY AND STRATEGY, UCSD
LA JOLLA, CA

An original documentary film that tells the storied history of Brazil's national expansion and current efforts to secure its borders. From Iguazu to the edges of the Amazon and through the centers of power in Brasília and São Paulo, see this vast country anew and learn from Brazilian voices about why its people see a bright future amidst challenges—including those that come across its borders.

Meet the film's director, Dodge Billingsley, CEO, Combat Films and Research, and Cory Leonard, executive producer and associate director at BYU Kennedy Center. Learn about this and other projects at the Kennedy Center, connect with alumni and friends, and find out how you can help to mentor, support, and engage with students.

Light refreshments will be served. Business casual attire. Space is limited. RSVP by Friday, 2 August at www.eventbrite.com/edit?eid=65755541595.
