STUDY ABROAD SUMMER 2020

Experience diplomacy and international affairs with Europe as your classroom. We will learn how diplomacy works by studying key institutions, actors, and ideas—with an emphasis on media and journalism. Students will learn from diplomats, journalists, and other experts, as well as through lectures, discussions, reading, writing, and reflection. This study abroad offers a deeper understanding of international affairs as well as a resource for future writing, research, and professional opportunities.

DATES
Summer Term June – August 2020 (approximately six weeks)

PREPARATION
Accepted students are required to participate in an international, cross-cultural preparation course (IAS 201R, 1.0 credit hour). This class will be held Wednesdays from 4:00 to 6:00 p.m. during the second block of winter semester 2020. Accompanying spouses need to be credit-bearing participants on the program. Spouses will also need to apply online and take the preparation course. Part-time BYU students and non-BYU students will need to pay an additional tuition fee. Students are expected to keep all aspects of the BYU Honor Code and ISP rules during the program.

FUNDING SOURCES
Regular BYU tuition scholarships, Pell Grants, and Federal Insured Student Loans may be applied to study abroad programs. Students who submit the financial aid section of the ISP application and who have a current FAFSA form on file at the Financial Aid Office (A-41 ASB) will be considered for a study abroad scholarship and may be considered for other scholarships. They must indicate on their original online application that they want to be considered for financial aid. Academic departments and colleges may assist with scholarships and grants. Private grants and scholarships outside of BYU may also assist (see kennedy.byu.edu/scholarships). Students may apply for Experiential Learning funds through their respective Colleges, including the School of Communications, Kennedy Center for International Studies, or another.

APPLICATION PROCESS
Complete the $35 (non-refundable) online application at kennedy.byu.edu/apply. Applicants will be interviewed once applications are complete. Students will be notified via e-mail of their acceptance into the program. The first payment is due upon acceptance.
