

How should you think about your career?

Get insights from professionals who understand the value of a Kennedy Center degree.

SOFT SKILLS

SEMINAR

Sariah Toronto is vice president and chief of staff for engineering at Goldman Sachs in SLC and founder and principal of Claritas, a nonprofit consulting firm. She has worked at the Gates Foundation and the Federal Reserve Bank of New York. Toronto received an MBA from the University of South Carolina and a BA in international relations from the Kennedy Center at BYU.

WED | 30 OCT 2019
4 PM
B104 JFSB

BRIGHAM YOUNG UNIVERSITY
KENNEDY CENTER
FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDIES