

LONDON LAW SEMINAR

EXTERNSHIP 2022

Learn law in London! Take courses in corporate, international, and European law while participating in an exciting externship with providers such as firms and businesses in the financial services sector. London is one of the hubs for the global legal market and has a rich history of legal innovation and development. It also sits at the crossroads of the US, UK, and European law. Experience a semester learning law, while applying the principles each day as you participate in your externship.

DATES

Winter 2022: 4 January – 9 April

Fall 2022: 27 August – 3 December

HOUSING

Students will live in an apartment style living in the Kensington area of London, near historic Hyde Park. Students are responsible for providing their own meals. Accommodations come with a refrigerator, and cooking facilities are available either in the apartment or on each floor.

COURSES

Students will spend thirty hours per week working at their externship (for 9 credit hours) and then will take two 3-credit classes to be taught either by distance learning or in the BYU London Center, such as:

LAW 769R Section 5 – Deals: The Legal Tools for Social Innovation

LAW 688 – European Union Law

Participants may not take any other courses on this program, including BYU Online courses, without approval by the program director and ISP.
