

Ask Me Anything

about diplomacy careers, including political, economic, and consular work.

WED | 13 NOV 2019

2 PM

257 HRCB

Jacob Glenn is a U.S. Foreign Service officer currently serving as a political-economic officer at the embassy in Nicosia. Glenn monitors and reports on internal politics, human rights, migration and refugees, religious freedom, and trafficking in persons. He previously served as a consular officer in New Delhi, working in the nonimmigrant visa, immigrant visa, and fraud prevention units. Prior to joining the Foreign Service in 2015, Glenn studied history at Brigham Young University and received an MS in Foreign Service from Georgetown University. He speaks Spanish and Hindi.

*Foreign Service
Student Organization*

KENNEDY CENTER