BRITISH LITERATURE AND LANDSCAPE
STUDY ABROAD SUMMER 2022

Roam the landscape that fed Shakespeare’s imagination. Climb peaks and walk the lakeshores where Wordsworth composed his verses. Meditate at the table by the window where Austen wrote her novels. Hike across the Brontës’ moors. Take a meal in the pub where Tolkien and Lewis’ Inklings conversed. Stroll the streets memorialized by Joyce.

In the British Literature and Landscape Study Abroad Program, students will hike the landscapes of British and Irish literature as they develop their own writing and study the work of great literary minds, from the urban intellectual centers of London, Dublin, and Edinburgh, to the wilds of the Scottish Highlands and the English Lake District. The group will visit Shakespeare’s Warwickshire, the mountains of Wales, the coastline that inspired Keats and Tennyson, King Arthur’s Tintagel, the Scottish Borders of Sir Walter Scott, and much more.

PREPARATION
Accepted students are required to participate in an international, cross-cultural preparation course (IAS 201, 1 credit hour). This evening course will be held during the second block of winter semester 2022. Part-time and non-BYU students will need to pay an additional tuition fee for enrolling in this prep class. All participants are required to show proof of complete COVID-19 vaccination by the time the preparation class begins.

FUNDING SOURCES
The College of Humanities offers scholarships that can be used for this program. For application information write to the program directors. Accepted students may be eligible for the Blessing/Kagel Literature and Landscape Study Abroad Award from the English Department. Regular BYU tuition scholarships, Pell Grants, and Federal Insured Student Loans may be applied to study abroad programs. Students who submit the financial aid section of the ISP application and who have a current FAFSA form on file at the Financial Aid Office (A-41 ASB) will be considered for a study abroad scholarship and may be considered for other scholarships. They must indicate on their original online application that they want to be considered for financial aid. Private grants and scholarships outside of BYU may also assist (see kennedy.byu.edu/scholarships).

APPLICATION PROCESS
Students must be 18 years-of-age or older to participate. Complete the online application at kennedy.byu.edu/apply. A nonrefundable $35 application fee is required. Applicants will be interviewed once the application is complete. Students will be notified via e-mail of their acceptance into the program. The first payment is due upon acceptance. Please refer to the 2022 Payment Information document (see kennedy.byu.edu/isp-forms/ISPpayments2022.pdf).

Priority Deadline: 1 December 2021
Final Deadline: 1 February 2022

FACULTY
Joey Franklin, assistant professor of English, teaches creative writing with a specialty in memoir and the personal essay. He will be joined on the program by his wife and three sons. joey.franklin@byu.edu, (801) 422-1296, 4133 JFSB

Jarica Watts, assistant professor of English, is a scholar of early twentieth-century British literature. She has published a variety of articles and book chapters on traditional canonical figures, such as Joseph Conrad, D. H. Lawrence, James Joyce, Radclyffe Hall, and Zadie Smith. At present, she is working on the first book-length book manuscript about Virginia Woolf and motherhood. Fashion (Italian shoes), fitness (marathon running, 3:34), photography (Cannon 60D), and writing bring her round to herself. jarica_watts@byu.edu, (801) 422-4938, 4140 JFSB

Please feel free to contact them with any questions.
