

A GREEK ODYSSEY: MYTH AND HISTORY

ATHENS, CRETE, OLYMPIA, DELPHI, THESSALONIKI
STUDY ABROAD SUMMER 2022

Can you imagine studying the words of Homer in the shadow of the Athenian Acropolis, viewing a play of Sophocles enacted on an ancient stage, or pondering the words of the oracle while climbing the steps to the temple of Apollo in Delphi? This study abroad program brings myth and history to life as students embark on an odyssey through the Greek world, exploring the literature, art, and artifacts of ancient Greece on location. Our classrooms will be the museums of London and Paris, the columns and friezes of Athens and Olympia, and the bronze-age ruins of Crete and Mycenae, just to name a few. Images on screens and textbook pages cannot replicate the experience of seeing these places and objects firsthand. Prepare to be transformed by your immersion in the myths and history of Greece in real time. Please contact us about the program and any questions you may have.

TRAVEL

Students are responsible for purchasing their own airfare to and from the program sites. Airline reservations must be made through BYU Travel. Students should contact a BYU Travel agent: BYU Travel, 280 HRCB | (801) 422-6293 | travel@byu.edu.

PREPARATION

Accepted students are required to participate in an international, cross-cultural preparation course (IAS 201, 1 credit hour). This evening course will be held during the second block of winter semester 2022. Part-time and non-BYU students will need to pay an additional fee for enrolling in the prep class.

All participants are required to show proof of complete COVID-19 vaccination by the time the preparation class begins.

FUNDING SOURCES

Regular BYU tuition scholarships, Pell Grants, and Federal Insured Student Loans may be applied to study abroad programs. Students who submit the financial aid section of the ISP application and who have a current FAFSA form on file at the Financial Aid Office (A-41 ASB) will be considered for a study abroad scholarship and may be considered for other scholarships. They must indicate on their original online application that they want to be considered for financial aid.

Academic departments and colleges may assist with scholarships and grants. Limited scholarships are available to majors in the College of Humanities.

Private grants and scholarships outside of BYU may also assist (see kennedy.byu.edu/scholarships).

APPLICATION PROCESS

Students must be 18 years-of-age or older to participate.

Complete the online application at kennedy.byu.edu/apply. A nonrefundable $35 application fee is required.

Applicants will be interviewed once the application is complete.

Students will be notified via e-mail of their acceptance into the program.

The first payment is due upon acceptance. Please refer to the 2022 Payment Information document (see kennedy.byu.edu/isp-forms/ISPpayments2022.pdf).

Deadline: 29 November 2021
