DESTINATIONS: England (London), France (Paris), Italy (Rome)
This first-of-its-kind program will bring students to Europe for 9 weeks in Spring/Summer 2022 to study business fundamentals in an international context. You will spend 3 weeks in each of three spectacular world capitals: London, Paris, and Rome. In those cities, cohorts of about 30 students each will rotate through 3 classes that fulfill minor or major requirements for graduation from the Marriott School of Business: Accounting 200, Marketing 201, and Global Supply Chain 305/310. You will study these subjects in classroom facilities in each location, with BYU faculty who teach these courses on campus. Classes will visit companies that do business in Europe and worldwide, expanding your learning with global perspective, both for your career and personally.

Business visits (tentative): Amazon, Mini Cooper/BMW, HSBC, Intel, Bank of England, the International Accounting Standards Board (England); Disney, Microsoft, Goldman Sachs, GE Healthcare, Danone, Nike (France); Bulgari, Boeing, Amazon, Department of Commerce/US Commercial Service, Google, and Deloitte or other Big Four accounting firms, Pirelli (Italy).

Cultural visits (subject to change—some with the group, others available on your own during free time):
Paris: Eiffel Tower, River Seine boat trip, Notre Dame (exterior), Louvre, Sacre Cur, Museum D'Orsay, Napoleon’s tomb, Arc de Triomphe, Sainte Chapelle, Versailles, Paris Temple, day trips to Normandy
Rome: Vatican, (Sistine Chapel, St. Paul’s Basilica), Colosseum, Catacombs, Forum/Mamertine Prison, Trevi Fountain, Pantheon, Borghese Gallery/Park, Spanish Steps, Rome Temple, day trips to Milan, Florence, Pisa, Venice

This program will fulfill course and international experience requirements for the Global Business Certificate and the Global Business and Literacy Minor offered by the Marriott School.

COST
$13,000 – $14,500 (includes all airfare, lodging, group cultural activities, international health insurance, and some meals)

Cost also includes Latter-day Saint, undergraduate full tuition (increased cost for graduate and non-Latter-day Saint students). Not included in cost: Personal expenses such as non-covered meals, souvenirs, public transportation, museums, and other free-time activities that are not part of the program.

PREPARATION – WINTER SEMESTER
Accepted students are required to participate in an international, cross-cultural preparation course (IAS 201R, 2.0 credit hour/s), held on an evening (to be determined) once a week during winter semester 2022. Included in this course will be the beginning of the three core classes of Accounting, Marketing, and Supply Chain, to be finished in Europe. Part-time BYU students and non-BYU students will need to pay an additional tuition fee of approximately $304.

All participants are required to show proof of complete COVID-19 vaccination by the time the program Prep class begins.

FUNDING SOURCES
Regular BYU tuition scholarships, Pell Grants, and Federal Insured Student Loans may be applied to Study Abroad programs. Students who submit the financial aid section of the ISP application, and who have a current FAFSA form on file at the Financial Aid Office (A-41 ASB), will be considered for a Study Abroad scholarship. Academic departments and colleges may assist with scholarships and grants. Private grants and scholarships outside of BYU may also assist (see kennedy.byu.edu/ispscholarships/).

APPLICATION PROCESS
Complete the online application at kennedy.byu.edu/apply. A non-refundable $35 application fee is required. Applicants will be interviewed once the application is complete and will be notified via e-mail of their acceptance into the program. Please refer to the 2022 Payment Information document for payment schedule (see kennedy.byu.edu/isp-forms/ISPpayments2022.pdf) Space is limited and will fill fast. Priority will be given to those who apply early.

Application Deadline: 28 December 2021
