

Ask Me Anything

U.S. Middle East Policy and the Congressional Research Service

THU | 4 NOV 2021

NOON

238 HRCB

Jim Zanotti is a nonpartisan specialist in Middle Eastern affairs for the Congressional Research Service; he briefs members of Congress and their staff on Israel, the Palestinians, and Turkey. He is also an attorney with a law degree from Harvard and a proud husband and father of four kids (including a current BYU student).

